

EcoBalade, reconnecting people to their Bioregion !

The society we are living in is getting us more and more disconnected from nature by only considering it as a resource for raw materials and services...

But...

We are part of biodiversity and we depend on it!

Go out, nature and adventures await you !

So now is the time to rethink our relationship with nature.

« Look deep into nature, and then you will understand everything better. »

Albert Einstein

With EcoBalade, discover the hidden treasures of nature around you !

On your own, with your family or your friends...

discover some new paths and take a look around you

Learn about cultural heritage, fauna and flora species and listen to their fantastic stories

Well done !
We now know that this species is still here and you know how to recognize it !

You are now ready to discover any territory and to see it as a Bioregion with all its characteristics!

By using Ecobalade, you will be using technology for nature conservation !
